one of the most interesting questions in architectural history is why modern architecture emerged from the war ravaged regions of central europe and not the united states whose techniques of mass production and mechanical products so inspired the first generation of modern architects like le corbusier mies van der rohe and walter gropius in from autos to architecture sociologist david gartman offers a critical social history that shows how fordist mass production and industrial architecture in america influenced european designers to an extent previously not understood drawing on marxist economics the frankfurt school and french sociologist pierre bourdieu from autos to architecture deftly illustrates the different class structures and struggles of america and europe examining architecture in the context of social conflicts from autos to architecture offers a critical alternative to standard architectural histories focused on aesthetics alone makers of 20th century modern architecture is an indispensable reference book for the scholar student architect or layman interested in the architects who initiated developed or advanced modern architecture the book is amply illustrated and features the most prominent and influential people in 20th century modernist architecture including wright eisenman mies van der rohe and kahn it describes the milieu in which they practiced their art and directs readers to information on the life and creative activities of these founding architects and their disciples the profiles of individual architects include critical analysis of their major buildings and projects each profile is completed by a comprehensive bibliography
